

ABOUT FUNDS FOR FOLK

In 2020 as the world of performance came to a halt, these proud breadwinners and cultural torchbearers were left stranded.

Tenma (Artiste and Music Producer), Gana Muthu (Gana Singer and YouTuber) and Shreya (Arts Development Consultant and Entrepreneur) throughout 2020 were supporting these artists in their own ways. When the second wave hit in 2021, instead of working in silos, they decided to join hands to provide these vibrant artists with urgent and immediate relief. 'Funds for Folk' was brought to life by the three of them assist these artists with basic necessities required for their sustenance.

OUR PURPOSE

This fundraiser aimed to go beyond the bounds of providing materialistic help and expanded itself to ably provide artists with holistic support structures that attended to their overall well-being. Designed to work WITH the artists, we compiled and audited their needs, and thoughtfully put together a Care Relief Package exclusively for them. In this package we provided:

- 1. Groceries (wet and dry, inclusive of oil, wheat, dal, vegetables, rice, etc.)
- 2. Hygiene products (inclusive of masks, soaps, sanitisers)
- 3. Sanitary products (for female hygiene)

Independent Artists and Technicians

Apart from geographically providing support, many artists and organizations had approached us independently asking for support. Due to severity of the lockdown, we supported as many artists as possible, in and around South India.

GOING FORWARD

This relief work is just the start to a collaborative, mutually-supportive relationship with the widespread community of artists. Going forward we hope to continue to provide any and all support we can, while standing by disadvantaged artists. This pandemic will end sooner than later and we look forward to meeting you all in-person to celebrate these artists.

A NOTE OF THANKS

YOU have made this a possibility for us. YOUR contributions have helped us support more than a thousand artists. Thank you for trusting us and donating to this campaign. Your collective support during these dire times was deeply inspiring for us. We are truly grateful for your support.
